In 1854 Pope Pius IX pronounced and defined that the Blessed Virgin Mary "in the first instant of her conception, by a singular privilege and grace granted by God, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, the Savior of the human race was preserved from all stain of original sin."

In 1858 at Lourdes this dogma was confirmed, when a "beautiful Lady" appeared to Bernadette Soubirous and said, "I am the Immaculate Conception."

In 1958 we celebrate the centenary of the apparitions of Mary Immaculate to Bernadette at Lourdes. We celebrate a century, during which time people of all races, all nations and all conditions have journeyed to Lourdes and witnessed more evidence of heaven's sanction to this dogma — the numerous miracles wrought, both spiritual and corporal through the powerful intercession of Saint Bernadette's Beautiful Lady. It is to this Beautiful Lady, Our Lady of Lourdes and Our Immaculate Mother that we dedicate the 1958 Wolf.

WWL TV

A dream came true for Loyola when early in September "WWL-TV, Loyola University of the South," hit the airwaves.

The students of Loyola will share in the benefits the station will one day provide for the University's expansion and reflect the University's increased prestige.

The Wolf welcomes the WWL-TV staff to the Loyola fold, assured that the entire student body joins us in wishing you, GOOD SHOW.

WWL-TV director of education and LU speech instructor, Leo C. Zinser, extends "An Invitation to Education" via TV, of course.

It takes more off camera people than on camera people to put on a TV show.

Year after year the Loyola Forum brings New Orleans famous speakers from all parts of the world. Directed by the Rev. John Toomey, S.J., the Forum has been aptly described as the "most painless educational movement ever introduced to Loyola."

Bishop Sheen becomes the audience as Kate Scully discusses the program.

Father Linehan keeps his audience in rapt attention as he relates some of his Antarctica adventures.

Homecoming Court 1957-58
Picture of popular ladies taken after they had "danced all night."

Where to find a pretty girl? We say Loyola is the place. Almost from each college, a representative is nominated. Then the final votes are cast for the finalists . . . six beauties and a lovely Queen are the result of this campus activity. What more can we say, except that this must be a fine university . . . After all, all this beauty and good studies, too!

"With A Little Bit of Luck" we could have a "loverly" day at the races.

"The rain is in Spain" mostly because Margaret brings the sunshine here.

Mayor Morrison presents Loyola's Queen with a key to the city.

Informal

Freshman Sweetheart

New coeds come to the campus in September. They bring beauty and friendliness to us . . . and add to the charm of female influence already on the campus. From this wonderful group of young ladies of the Freshman class, a pretty representative is chosen. This year, the popular choice was Yvonne Boening from down Texas way.

Frosh Sweetheart Nominees were, from the left, top row: Maria Cicero and Letty Hubert; second row: Patsy Webster and Sandra Ruthoske; and bottow row: Yvonne Boening and Gwen Pitrie.

The Alpha Delta chapter of Rho Chi, national pharmaceutical honor society, was installed at Loyola on July 15, 1942. The fundamental objective of Rho Chi is to promote the pharmaceutical sciences through the encouragement and recognition of scholarship. To attoin this end, high standards of scholarship have been demanded for election to membership on the supposition that scholarly attainment indicates the capacity of the individual for outstanding achievement in Phormacy. Some other objectives of the society are the development of the professional and ethical qualities of its members and the encouragement and fostering of true pharmoceutical research.

Founded on October 16, 1941, the sorority has put these principles to practical application by placing itself at the disposal of administrative offices and student organizations ta aid them in anyway whatsoever. So well has LSL performed under the guidance of prexy Joy Boes that it tied for second place as the most active organization on campus.

True Catholic action, the work of every Catholic as a lay apostle for Christ is the duty of the Apologetics Club. Going into its fifth year af activity, the club has as its purpose the defense of Catholic doctrine. Through the work of its members errors and misrepresentations of church teachings in publications are caught and the publishers are informed of these mistakes which are corrected and clarified through letters written by club members.

PHILOSOPHY CLUB

Richard Barber, Ph.D., Father Montecina, and Charlene Incaprera before a Philosophy lecture.

The thirst and love for knowledge is what has brought a group of undergraduates together in a Philosophy Club.

Offering an opportunity for interested students to study and discuss philosophical works as an extra-curricular activity, the club has brought a wave of intellectual delight of the highest essence to the campus with a series of excellent lectures on different phases of philosophy and an outstanding annual Aquinos Day Lecture.

The Club was reactivated in October, 1953.

One of the liveliest groups on campus is the Pan-American Club — a group of "always smiling" folk who gather to stimulate friendly co-operation among Spanish and English speaking students at Loyola and seem to do a good job of it. Organized in 1947, the club aims at intimate study of inter-American relations through annual functions that emphasize the cultural background of our Spanish-speaking neighbors.

In few organizations on the campus do personal tolent, unselfish cooperation and industry combine so readily to yield a more significant and praise-worthy organization as they do in this — the University Band, directed by George A. Jansen.

The University Band supplies MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC to Loyola . . . at basketball games, the Forum, graduation and at many other student gatherings. Our hats are off to the band and its director and we'd like to thank them for keeping MUSIC IN THE AIR at Loyola.

LOYOLA — NOW AND FOREVER . . .

This is the Alumni Association — living proof that Loyola never dies but, rather, lives in the busy world of today.

It is the job of the Association to give testimony, through example, of the worth of a Loyola education and to foster a union, co-operation and fellowship between its members and the university — thus providing a group of graduates to promote the welfare, growth and interest of Loyola.

And with this task firmly set, the association this year started on a campaign to finance "The New Loyola" — introduced by the Very Rev. W. Patrick Donnelly, university president.

The group also sponsors a quarterly Communion, Homecaming, an annual Baby Party and a cocktail party for graduotes.

Loyola living today in a busy world—Alumni members return for Quarterly Mass and Communion, a brief pause to balance daily life.

Loyola's future—of smiles and laughter and all that is good. Here future Loyolans enjoy themselves at the annual Alumni Baby Party.

The spiritual food that keeps the soul alive—Alumni members return four times a year en masse to strengthen their spiritual souls for greater Loyola work.

FREEDOM FIGHTER TO TALK ON FORUM

Freedom Fighter Kiraly To Speak On 'Hungary'

Scheduled For Forum At St. Charles Hotel

Major General Bela Kiraly, commander of the Budapest "Freedom Fighters," will speak on the Hungarian Revolution next Friday at 8:30 p.m. in the St. Charles Hotel, the Rev. John A. Toomey, S.J., director, announced

Father Toomey said that General Kiraly, the second speaker in the Forum series will direct three main points.

(1) Hungary 1956 the first major attack

(2) Central Europe and the future of the Middle East

(3) The inherent weakness in Russia's strength

Father Toomey stated that General Kiraly was chosen to address the Forum because he represents ideals which are part of every Catholic-American's life.

"General Kiraly and his people are largely Catholic in religion," he said. "It is only right that the Catholics of Loyola should welcome him and allow him to tell of Hungary's bravery."

General Kiraly was named commander-in-chief of the Hungarian Infantry after World War II and later he became commander of the Hungarian General Staff College.

In 1951 he was imprisoned for resisting the Bolshevization of the Hungarian Army. Then, in October of 1956, he escaped after five years of imprisonment to lead the dramatic attack against Communism.

A professional soldier who knows the Russians well, General Kiraly can be found very often in Washington, D.C. and Central Europe acting as emissary for his supressed people. Also, he manages to attend the classes necessary for his master's degree in history from Columbia University.

Tickets for the Forum may be obtained from the Jesuit Rectory, the Loyola Bookstore, and Werlein's Music Store. Loyola students will be admitted free upon presentation of their student identification cards.

GENERAL KIRALY

Sinfonia Elects New Sweetheart

Kathleen Tourry, music sophomore, was elected Sweetheart of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia music fraternity, it was announced this week.

The 19-year-old piano major was crowned at an initia-

presenting informal lectures the various aspects of fine arts is the purpose of the organization.

The present problem arose when the hard-core nucleus, a group of upper classmen sincerely interested in the arts, graduated, he said. The present lack of experienced members prevents the club from arranging for well-known speakers.

Moreover, the organization moderator, Mr. William Goetz, English instructor, is unable to devote an adequate amount of time to the club this year because he is working on his master's degree at another university, according to Wells.

Still, he cannot be blamed for this year's inactivity for he has shown his full energies in the past, Wells continued. "In fact, he was responsible for bringing the club from an obscure position into a prominent extra-curricular place in 1956."

The student council offered an alternative to Wells. If the organization fails to be active this semester it will again be called

LU Riflemen To LSU Meet

Loyola's ROTC rifle team will compete in the regional shoulder-to-shoulder match of the National Rifle Association, next Saturday at Louisiana State University, according to Lt. Col. Marion B. Noland, professor of military science and tactics.

The team, fresh from a victory over Spring Hill, will compete against eight other entrants. It will be a three position match (standing, kneeling, and prone). Ten rounds will be fired from each position.

LU riflemen are Ivan Heingartner, Pat Reardon, Bill Cornick, Oscar Guerra, Andres Pedrahaure, Anthony Hecke, Gordon Drotesky, Beau Borron, Mike Burson, and Gerald LeBreton. Intra-squad competition will determine Loyola's five representatives.

The team is coached by Sgt. Hyrum Taylor.

The top four teams will receive trophies and the members will get medals.

Southern Lawyers Attend LU Natural Law Conference

Attorneys from throughout the deep South will meet ... "Natural Law Jurisprudence."

The group will participate in the Loyola University Natural ... noted by the St. Thomas More Law Club, at 2 p.m. in the studio ...

"This is a new method of public discussion which differs ... that it will not be merely a successive presentation of views but ... fluenced expression or exchanging of views," Dr. Brendan F. Brown, Loyola law school professor, said.

Dr. Paul M. Hebert, former dean of the Louisiana State University law school, will be chairman of the conference.

The program will open with two introductory papers intended to act as a basis for debate. These will be delivered by Prof. Robert A. Pascal of LSU, and Alan Kerabun, visiting assistant professor of law at Tulane.

According to Gerald Choppin, president of the St. Thomas More Law Club, the conference will be devoted to discussing natural law, its existance, source, and its effects on the formation of positive law.

Jurists representing as many philosophical approaches to positive law as possible have been ... invited from the law schools of Tulane, Loyola and LSU to be members of the discussion group.

"Our purpose is to make the doctrine of natural law a living thing in contemporary society, not just to talk about it as some abstract expression of the dead past," Dr. Brown said.

Members of the panel will include law professors Pascal and Kerabun; Dr. Brown, Loyola; Ralph Slovenko, Tulane, Will ... Harvard, professor of government at LSU, and the Rev. Guy J. Lemieux, S.J., professor of philosophy, Loyola.

Dr. Brown expressed the hope that the unique effect of the conference would be to permit participants to reach each oth- ... are conclusions in a way which would be made impossible simply by reading articles written by each other. "The onus will be a demonstration of impromptu creative thinking caused by the immediate necessity for finding counter explanations," he said.

There is no charge and the conference is also open to professors and students of law, political science, philosophy, theology, and other interested persons, Choppin said.

In addition to the conference the law club will sponsor an open house at 10:30 a.m. in the law school. This open house is for students throughout the state who are contemplating studying law and is designed to act as an introduction to law school.

Vol. XXXV | Loyola University, New Orleans, La., Friday, March 21, 1958 | No. 18

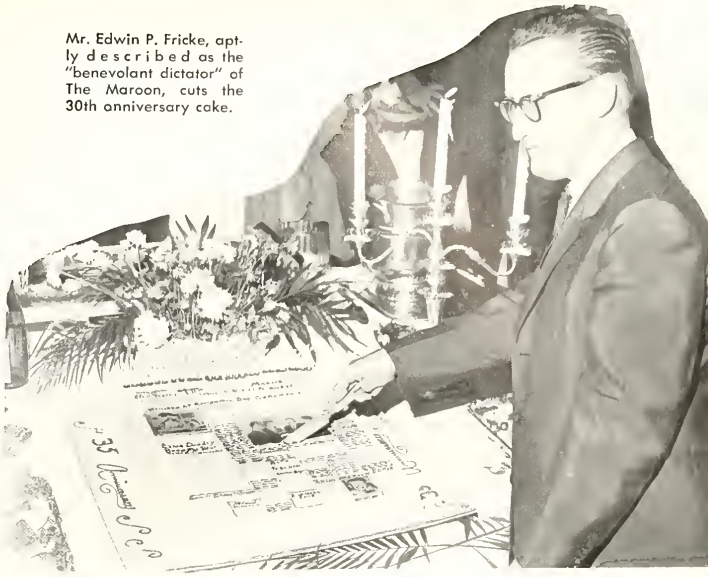
A newspaper for the students, by the students and of the students, The Maroon spent its 30th year of successful publication under the capable leadership of Leo McLean. Because of his outstanding writing The Maroon received special recognition for its editorial writing this year.

Evelyn Komma, left, and Gail Gritter acted as interchaning managing and news editars during the spring semester. Appointed co-editors for the 1958-59 term, Evelyn and Gail held the positians af feature and assistant news editor respectively in the fall. Both received gald keys far autstanding wark.

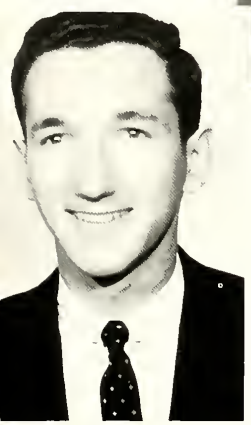
Marilyn Hall acted as managing editor during the fall semester. A senior, Marilyn accepted the positian of Church Editar an the New Orleans States during the spring.

Frank Causey, ace senior reporter, was originally slated as co-news editor of the fall staff. When night school forced him to resign the position The Maroon lost one very good editor and gained an outstanding reporter.

Mr. Edwin P. Fricke, aptly described as the "benevolant dictator" of The Maroon, cuts the 30th anniversary cake.



George Rhode reentered Loyola for the spring semester and successfully took over the position of sports editor.



John Payton, news editor for the fall semester and official debater of the staff.

Key staff members Nat Belloni, Milton Alberstadt and Ronald Barnes discuss the fine art of good newspaper work. Nat and Ronald, who also helped out in the sports department, received gold keys for outstanding Maroon work.

Maroonites settle down to business at the copy desk. They are, from left: Kit Harger, Lynn Armstrong, Judy Wucher, Hil Leibe, Judy Brock, Elaine Bevinetto and Mary Jo Wolf. Miss Harger was awarded the first annual Boswell award for outstanding news writing.

New columnists for the spring semester get some tips from Gail Gritter, left front, author of the bi-monthly Grittercisms and Evelyn Komma, originator of Komma's Korner, presented weekly since 1955. Looking on are Marcia Voitier, Society; Judy Brock, Puns and Judy; and Ronald Barnes, Barnestorming.

Backbone of the feature staff, Gladys Selva feeds Pierre and Fifi, official moscots of The Maroon.

Leo McLeon receives the McEnerny Award as the outstanding journalism student from banquet speaker John Gordon, Editor of The Houma Courier. Leo also was the recipient of the Boswell award for outstanding feature writing for the year.

Pharmacy Journal

The Journal of the New Orleans College of Pharmacy established in 1936 is published quarterly by the students and faculty of the New Orleans College of Pharmacy, Loyola University.

This publication gives pharmacy students the opportunity to do scientific research, and report it to pharmacists everywhere. It also serves as a means of contact between alumni, the pharmacy profession at large and Loyola's College of Pharmacy.

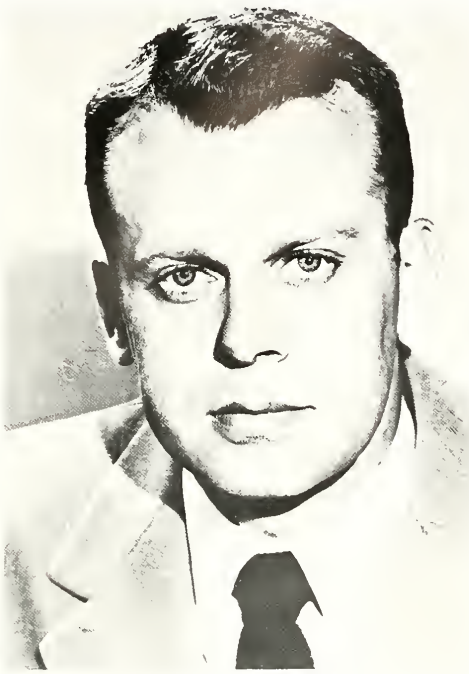
BASKETBALL



JAMES HARDING
Head Coach

Loyola's Wolfpack switched from a "Big Jim" to a "Little Jim" this season. 30-year-old Jim Harding inherited from Jim McCafferty a tough 24 game schedule and a letter-studded Wolfpack.

The new Pack coach is a graduate of Iowa University, class of '49. He played pro-basketball with the Wilkes Barre, Pa., cagers for a short time before he turned to the coaching profession. Harding holds an excellent 109-23 record in high school hardwood ranks and hopes to maintain this kind of record in his jump from the high school to college coaching ranks.

Back the Pack is not just a slogan to Father Molloy. Living these words has been his whole life at Loyola. Besides planning the Wolves' schedule and coordinating their activities, he has given something extra to the boys on the team . . . that something is made up of the encouragement he gives and of the real faith he has in the boys.

BASEBALL

Loyola's new baseball coach, Louis "Rags" Scheuermann, is right up at bat all ready. Right away he scheduled, for the first time in LU history, a series of fall practice sessions. Also, another first, is his bringing into the team several yearlings when freshman eligibility was introduced this year.

If that wasn't enough, he also has scheduled some night baseball and tilts with pro teams for the Loyola baseballers.

Before he came to Loyola, "Rags" coached for NORD, and established an almost unbelievable record with them.

Gene Guccione . . . for his patience in photographing countless Loyola students . . .

To all of the Loyola faculty and students for their co-operation and support of the Wolf . . .

And most of all to the Wolf Staff . . . for doing a good job . . . Though the 1958 Wolf may not be perfect, I think our issue of the annual is a very fine representation and compilation of campus life at Loyola.
